

The School of Education and BERA

Present

What is Inclusive Pedagogy?

Annual Conference of British Educational
Research Association Inclusive Education
Special Interest Group

Does inclusive pedagogy require specialist teaching?

Professor Brahm Norwich, University of Exeter

Exploring Inclusive Pedagogy

Professor Lani Florian, University of Aberdeen

& Dr Kristine Black-Hawkins, University of Cambridge

Plus, presentations from Sue Davies & Andy Howes on using action research to develop inclusive practice, Mairi Ann Cullen on The Inclusion Development Programme and Melanie Nind, Kieron Sheehy & Janice Wearmouth on the emerging picture of inclusive pedagogy from systematic review; discussion forum; poster presentations; and discussant response.

School of Education, Highfield Campus, Room 2097, Building 32

Friday 14 May 2010 | 10.00–15.00

All Welcome. There is no charge for attendance.

Please contact Melanie Nind if you are a research student who would be unable to attend without support for some or part of your travel, M.A.Nind@soton.ac.uk

To obtain information and to book a place please email the event administrator, Torhild Hearn, T.Hearn@soton.ac.uk

This event is supported by the British Educational Research Association (BERA) and is convened by BERA's Inclusive Education Special Interest Group in conjunction with the Social Justice and Inclusive Education Research Centre, School of Education, University of Southampton.