

British Educational Research Association

Seventeenth Annual Conference
Nottingham 28th-31st August, 1991

CREATING FUTURE EDUCATION THROUGH RESEARCH

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Conference programme includes symposia and individual papers. Members wishing to contribute individual papers are invited to contact the conference organiser, Michael Bassey, before 30 April 1991.

The general theme of the Conference this year is creating future education through research. In accordance with the broad aim of the Association contributors are invited to show how their research, whether it be in classroom practice, institutional practice, local policy, national policy, international pedagogy, or other educational issues, could contribute to the improvement of educational practice and the general benefit of the community.

The following proposals for symposia have been made by the members listed.

Action Research and School Management: Pam Lomax, Kingston Polytechnic.

Markets in Education and Public Service Organizations:
Stephen Ball, Centre for Educational Studies, King's College London.

Change in Classroom Practice: Hilary Constable, Sunderland Polytechnic.

School Governorship: Mike Golby, University of Exeter.

School Improvement:
Peter Mortimer, Institute of Education, University of London.

Personal Theories in Reflective Practice: Sarah Tann, Oxford Polytechnic.

International Studies of the Transition from School to Work: Karen Evans, University of Surrey.

School Industry Liaison:
Bob Roberts and John Dolan, Derbyshire College of Higher Education.

Equality, Prejudice and Educational Success:
Morwenna Griffiths, University of Nottingham and Gaby Weiner, Polytechnic of the South Bank.

Action Research, Educational Theory and the Politics of Educational Knowledge:
Jack Whitehead, University of Bath

LEA Supported Research and its Impact on Policy:
Hugh Busher, University of Loughborough.

BERA Task Group on Assessment:
Caroline Gipps, Institute of Education, University of London.

BERA Task Group on National Curriculum: Harry Torrance, University of Sussex.

BERA Task Group on Teacher Education:
David Hustler, Didsbury Manchester Polytechnic.

BERA Task Group on Local Management of Schools:
Gwen Wallace, Derbyshire College of Higher Education.

Conference Organiser: Michael Bassey, Nottingham Polytechnic, Clifton Hall, Nottingham NG11 8NJ (0602 486757)