This exciting conference entitled ‘Education: A Global Perspective’ will explore important themes such as Internationalisation of the Curriculum, Globalizing Teacher Education, Evidence-Informed Practice and Self Improving Systems, Diversity, Global Citizenship, Intercultural Education, Unesco Education 2030: A Framework for Action and Education in a Global Context to support the development of a vision of education as a self-improving evidence-based sector with international collaboration.

Keynote Lecture:

Gary Brace has been Chief Executive of the General Teaching Council for Wales (GTCW) since its inception in 2000. Previously, Gary was Assistant Chief Executive with the Qualifications, Curriculum and Assessment Authority for Wales (ACCAC) and prior to that, history officer with the Authority. He spent 15 years at the ‘chalkface’ teaching history and government & politics in a secondary school and a sixth form college in Cardiff.

He has been author and co-author of a range of guidance booklets for teachers and has undertaken education advisory work in the Russian Federation and Georgia on behalf of the Council of Europe.

He is the Vice-Chair with Education portfolio for the UK National Commission for UNESCO, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and has been awarded the University of Glamorgan Chancellor’s Medal.

Gary has twice climbed Mt Kilimanjaro.
